

Remember Belgium

America must never find herself with her back to the wall. As the champion of Democracy too much is at stake. And German ruthlessness knows no bounds of restraint. Give Military Autocracy the upper hand—and the tragedy of Belgium despoiled will be re-enacted the world over—wherever the spirit of freedom and democracy and humanity dares lift its head. It is up to every citizen of the United States to strengthen the power of his country's honor-defending arm by going the limit in the purchase of the bonds that bid for lasting peace.
